1. Have a Family Game Night Marathon.

-I love the night marathon of games =)

Description of activity:

Stay in for the evening, get cozy in your jammies and have a game night marathon. There are different games for all ages, but Bingo is a favorite for almost everyone in the family (this bingo set comes with everything you need!). You can make it even more fun by adding prizes for the winner, like store like gift cards, candies or extra TV time.

2. Have an Arts & Craft Day

Very useful for creative development

Description of activity:

Clear off the kitchen table and spend the day getting crafty. Arts & Crafts can range from simple seashell bracelets to intricate dreamcatchers to even homemade slime. Make of plan to take your creations and put them to use, wether it be using it, wearing it or putting it on display in the home.

3. Play Mini-golf

-Relaxes well after work

Description of activity:

Mini golf is so entertaining because you could be hitting your fluorescent ball into the mouth of a clown or through a squiggly tunnel. It also promotes a healthy competitiveness that can teach sportsmanship. If you are extra creative you can build your own course with this easy how-to.

4. Play Cards

-Develops logic

Description of activity:

A simple deck of cards can lead up to hours of entertainment. Teach the young ones to play your favorite childhood game (here are 5 classic card games) or learn something new together by checking out these top 25 card games for families. Throw in some homemade goodies and a crackling fireplace and you've got one heck of an evening going.

5. Go on a walk together.

-Good for your health

Description of activity:

If you are a fit family (or need to be) this is a great way to laugh, talk, race each other and get out of the house. Oh and burn off some much-needed calories after dinner!

Thanks FOR Attention !

I hope you found out what's new for yourself !!
